

ARANDA AND TACU HOUSE RULES

CARDINAL RULES

The five cardinal rules ensure that Aranda House offers a drug-free environment without violence, discrimination, and stealing.

They also ensure that drug and alcohol rehabilitation is the primary focus whilst at Aranda House.

We are all responsible for keeping Aranda House a safe environment.

For this reason, it is the responsibility of both staff and other residents to report any one in the house who is breaking these rules.

Cardinal rule	Outcome
NO DRUG OR ALCOHOL USE ON OR OFF PREMISES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exit from Aranda House. • Staff discretion on timeframe.
NO INTIMATE RELATIONSHIPS OR SEX ON OR OFF PREMISES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If there is a staff suspicion that intimate relationship is forming, residents will be reminded of this cardinal rule. • If there is evidence that this rule is being broken, the residents will be exited at staff discretion.
NO DISCRIMINATION, RACISM, SEXISM, OR HOMOPHOBIC BEHAVIOUR	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Depending on the degree of the discriminatory behaviour, a behaviour contract may be put in place. • If the behaviour continues, the resident will be exited at staff discretion. • Staff are also able to instantly exit a resident based on this behaviour.
NO PHYSICAL, VERBAL, OR EMOTIONAL VIOLENCE/THREATS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Depending on the level of behaviour, staff will remind the resident of the cardinal rule. • A behaviour contract will be initiated if necessary. If behaviour persists even after initiation of the contract, then the resident will be exited at staff discretion. • Staff are also able to instantly exit a resident based on this behaviour.
NO STEALING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If a resident is caught stealing or found to be stealing either from staff or residents, the resident will be exited at discretion of staff.

Transitional After Care Unit Rules

As part of your treatment you must take part in the daily program, groups and counselling sessions whenever you are not engaged in external employment or education. Whilst living in the Transitional After Care Unit you must be either engaged in or seeking engagement in external employment (paid or voluntary) and / or education. As a member of the Therapeutic Community you must still participate in the Program when you are not engaged in work/study or volunteering.

BY THIS PHASE YOU ARE CONSIDERED TO BE A SENIOR CLIENT/ROLE MODEL FOR OTHER RESIDENTS AND IT IS EXPECTED THAT YOU WILL GIVE BACK TO YOUR COMMUNITY – THIS COULD BE IN LEADING AN AFTERNOON MEETING OR GATHERING RESIDENTS FOR SESSIONS/OUTINGS AND CONTINUING TO ROLE MODEL.

Money and Valuables

There is a locked bedside cabinet in your room for you to store your valuable items in. Please ensure this is locked at all times and that your room is locked also. You are responsible for your property.

Mobile Phones

A personal mobile telephone per client is permitted. The responsibility for the safety and security of the phone rests with the client. The client is also responsible for all costs associated with the mobile telephone and its usage. No other Residents are to use your mobile phone. When inside Aranda House you must keep your phone on silent and it must be not used in front of the Residents.

Emails and Internet Access

Pornography and other offensive material should not be viewed on any Aranda House computers. Any reports of offensive material being viewed or saved on the computer WILL result in your access to the computer being cancelled.

Phone Calls

Personal calls can be made from the phone box across the road. If you are still in the process of securing employment then personal calls can't be made during the program hours. Business calls such as employment or education related calls, Centrelink, Medical appointments etc can be made with the assistance of your Case Manager on an appropriate phone.

Television

Televisions/DVD Players are not permitted in the accommodation units until you have moved to TACU and successfully completed the Aranda House program. There is a large television and DVD player in the Common Room; this is accessible between 7am and midnight each day. Please look after the belongings in the Common Room; they are there to be enjoyed by all of the Residents within the Transitional After Care Unit. Only DVD's with an M 15+ rating or lower can be watched after dinner and after your dishes have been cleaned. The TV in the common room is NOT to be used between 8 am – 4pm Monday to Friday, unless you have a full time job and are on a day off.

Common Room

The Common Room is accessible between 6am and 11pm Sunday to Thursday and 6am and Midnight Friday and Saturday and will be opened up and locked up by the Therapeutic Community

Support Workers from Aranda House. All Residents are responsible for cleaning the Common Room including vacuuming, microwave, fridge, rubbish bin and benches. All Residents are required to clean up after themselves whenever they make any mess. Any items (books, games etc) that are taken from the shelves need to be returned when they are finished with. No items other than food are permitted to be taken out of the Common Room.

TACU Kitchen

The TACU kitchen is for TACU Residents to use. This is to be kept very clean by all TACU residents. As part of Phase 4 (Transition) the TACU residents are required to be part of a kitchen team once a week

Shopping

If you are not engaged in employment/volunteer work or study shopping is to be done at the same time as all other Therapeutic Community residents, if you are working/volunteering/studying you may go shopping at another time that is to be discussed with your Case Manager.

Curfew

You must be back to the TACU by 6pm. You must always talk to your Case Manager about your work finishing times and appointments etc. When you leave the premises you must let TCSW staff know where you are going and what time you plan to be back. This is a courtesy and must be followed.

Leave

Application needs to be submitted to your Case Manager before you are granted leave. This is up to the discretion of the TC Manager and Case Manager.

Housekeeping

- You must hang up / put away all of your clothes and belongings
- Unless you are working nights you must rise by 6:30am ready to participate in the daily routine.
- Main lights out and noise off by 11pm Sunday – Thursday and by midnight Friday and Saturday nights. This is a courtesy to all other Residents and the local community. You may read by your lamp later than this if you wish.
- Consider others when listening to music in your room, keep the volume down.
- Your room is to be kept tidy at all times and your linen and clothes are to be washed at least once per week. A room inspection will be carried out by the Case Manager once a week.
- Your bathroom and toilet is to be cleaned at least once per week.
- Whenever you leave your room you are required to turn off all lights, music and appliances, turn off all taps, turn off the air conditioner and lock your door.
- On your last day you are required to clean your room thoroughly and wash all linen.

FAILURE TO GO BY THE RULES WILL RESULT IN CONSEQUENCES AND / OR DISCHARGE

Failure to participate fully in the program and/ or not continuing positive Role Modelling may result in discharge or dropping back phases.

If you leave the program prior to being discharged by your Case Manager and you would like to return, you must make a time to meet your Case Manager and Management in office hours to talk through your situation. It will be at the discretion of your Case Manager, Management (Corrections/Police if you are under orders) as to whether you will be accepted back into TACU, or if you need to complete all or part of the AHTC program again. If it is decided you can re enter TACU, your Case Manager will do a new treatment plan with you and may implement new rules for a period of time, depending on the reasons you left.

I understand and agree to abide by the Aranda House Therapeutic Community Rules & Transitional After Care Unit Rules.
